

CLASSIFIEDS

STRAYED OR STOLEN!

Brown colored horse mule, weighing about 800 pounds; Dark bay mare mule, weighing about 900 pounds. Both mules disappeared from the Raymond Place, seven miles east of Eden Jan. 15th. Liberal reward. Notify

W. M. SAXTON
Benton, Miss.

TO MY CUSTOMERS—Both white and colored. My allotment of McDonald's Farmers Almanacs for 1934 are here and for convenience may be found at The Advertiser office. Practical information may always be found in the Almanac for farmers, poultrymen, orchardists, dairymen, cotton growers, flower lovers and all that plant. Also good days for fishing, business undertakings and affairs of interest to all being included. Copies 20 cents at Advertiser office or see me. I thank you. J. M. Sample, Lexington, Miss.

TAKEN UP—One bay horse mule, freshly roached, smooth mouth, weight about 900 lbs. Came to my place Christmas week. W. B. Peacock, R. 1, Lexington, Miss. 37-34.

WANTED—Tea and Coffee Route man for regular route through Lexington and Holmes County. Apply by letter immediately. M. L. Togstad Coffee Company, Kokomo, Indiana. 38-11-pd.

TAKEN UP—One gray horse mule, about Dec. 17. Owner will prove property, pay usual upkeep and take same. Mrs. Sallie Chisolm, R. 1, Ebenezer, Miss. 38-31.

PRACTICAL NURSING—Lula Adkins, practical nurse with hospital training, is prepared to do general nursing, day or night. Telephone 325, Lexington. 38-11.

FOR SALE—Stoneville No. 2 cotton seed, planted first year from Russell-Heckle Seed Co., $2.25 per 100 lb. sack. K. D. Henry, Ebenezer, Miss. 38-21-pd.

LOST—Tortoise shell eye glasses on streets of Lexington last Thursday. Finder will be rewarded. Mrs. H. P. Sullivan. 37-21.

WE buy hides, ginseng, fur and eggs at highest cash prices. Flink's Market, Lexington. 33-11.

WANTED—No. 1 large, clean white corn shucks, 5c lb. Flink's Market, Lexington. 33-11.

WANTED—Beef Cattle. T. E. Murtagh, Ebenezer, Miss. 23-11.

Barbecued Pig Sandwich and a good cold drink at Lion Service Station, across new bridge on Durant road, home of Golden Knix-Knox Gas and Pennzoil. Carb Service. "Come over to see us sometime—anytime." C. O. Povall, Mgr.

Liberty Chapel W. M. S. Meets With Mrs. Boyd

A large representation of the Liberty Chapel W. M. S. met with Mrs. Nellie Boyd at the home of her daughter, Miss Ruth Boyd January 24. The president of the Lexington society, Mrs. R. M. Gwin, presented valuable instructions for missionary work and duties in general for the coming year. Mrs. J. C. Dickard, president of the Liberty Chapel society, proceeded with a brief program, the topic being Stewardship. She gave the faithful religious life of Callie Lyons, "A Heroine of the Hilltop." Mrs. J. K. Boatwright read "Revival Grows Out of Week of Prayer." After other sketches from the Missionary News, collection of dues of $1.15, the meeting closed by repeating the Lord's prayer in unison. The members were served refreshments at the end of the meeting by Mrs. H. B. Haynes and Miss Mabel Johnson. REPORTER

LEGALS

NOTICE OF SALE

By virtue of the authority conferred on me as Substituted Trustee in that certain deed of trust executed by James W. Anderson and Mrs. Clemmie Anderson, his wife, on the 26th day of September, 1930, to secure a certain indebtedness therein described due R. L. Wallace, wherein D. T. Ruff is named as Trustee, said deed of trust being recorded in Trust Book 56, Page 180, Records of Holmes County, Mississippi, and I having been appointed Substituted Trustee on the 2nd day of September, 1933, as shown by said appointment recorded in Mortgage & Deed of Trust Book 4, at Page 247, Records of Holmes County, Miss., and default having been made in the payment of said indebtedness under the terms and provisions of said deed of trust, and all of said indebtedness having been declared due and payable by the holder thereof, and I having been requested by said holder and owner of said indebtedness, will, on the 25th day of February, 1934, within legal hours, offer for sale and sell for cash, at public outcry, to the highest bidder, at the Courthouse in Lexington, Holmes County, Mississippi, the following described property situated in Holmes County, Mississippi, to-wit:

Commence at S. E. corner of Lot 38 in Town of Pickens, Holmes County, Mississippi, and run east on North Fourth Street 210 feet, thence northerly 105 feet, thence westerly 210 feet to the northeast corner of said Lot 38, thence southerly 105 feet to place of beginning. And also the following described lots, to-wit: Begin at northeast corner of Lot 38 in said Town of Pickens, Holmes County, Miss., and run thence northerly along the line of the lot formerly owned by L. Bridgforth to a ditch, thence easterly along said ditch 3.16 chains, thence southerly parallel to the western boundary 4.64 chains, thence westerly along the northern boundary line of the first lot herein above described to the point of beginning. The two lots herein described containing 1.5-6 acres of land, and situated partly within and partly without the corporate limits of Town of Pickens, Mississippi.

I will only convey such title as is vested in me as Substituted Trustee. Witness my signature this 1st day of February, 1934.

L. D. PEPPER,

Substituted Trustee.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

I, G. H. McMorrough, under the provisions of and by virtue of the authority conferred upon me in a deed of trust executed by G. P. Wallace to the Merchants & Planters Bank of Tchula, Mississippi on the 15th day of October, 1932, to secure a certain indebtedness therein described to the said Merchants & Planters Bank and which said deed of trust is of record in Trust Deed Book 58, page 42, Records of the Chancery Clerk's office, Holmes County, Mississippi; since executing the above deed of trust the said G. P. Wallace has died intestate in this county leaving as his sole heirs at law, Mrs. Annie W. Bean, Mrs. Thelma Wallace, Mrs. Will Wallace, Fay Wallace, Camille Wallace, Mrs. Irene Smothers; said indebtedness being past due and default having been made in the payment thereof, and I having been requested to foreclose said deed of trust by the owner and holder thereof, I will on Friday, February 23, 1934, during legal hours, offer for sale and will sell to the highest and best bidder for cash at the South front door of the Holmes County court house in Lexington, Mississippi, the following described real estate situate in the town of Tchula, Holmes County, Mississippi, to-wit:

Lots 58 and 63 in Ricks Addition to the Town of Tchula, Mississippi, and being the same lots conveyed to G. P. Wallace by Mrs. Gertrude Wallace on February 4, 1926, deed for which of record in Deed Book 36, page 538, Records of Holmes County, Mississippi; Also the following described lot or parcel of land in Tchula, Holmes County, Mississippi: 31 feet off the South side of Lot 25 and 69 feet off the North side of Lot 24, making a total of 100 feet on Front Street thence running East and West to Tchula Lake. The above lot being in Blake Addition to Tchula and being the same property deeded to G.

GOODMAN

Eastern Star Installation.

Mrs. Josie Rankin of Gulfport, Grand Matron of the State O. E. S., presided at the installation of the officers of the Senecah Chapter on Friday evening. Mrs. Rankin was introduced by Mrs. J. E. Allen in her usual charming manner and after a few well chosen words proceeded with the impressive ceremony of installation assisted by Mrs. Zilpha Mansell, Deputy Grand Marshal with Mrs. Melvin from Camden presiding at the organ. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows:

Worthy Matron—Miss Helen McDaniel, Associate Matron—Mrs. I. C. New, Worthy Patron—Dr. H. M. Terry, Associate Worthy Patron—Mr. I. C. New, Conductress—Miss Lotta Peebles, Associate Conductress—Miss Ruby Mitchell, Secretary—Mrs. Pat Smithson, Treasurer—Mrs. J. T. Skelton, Marshal—Mrs. Eugene Parker, Mrs. H. M. Terry—Organist, Mrs. McDaniel—Ada, Mrs. Ida Hearst—Ruth, Mrs. Ethel Hutchinson—Ester, Mrs. Ida Henderson—Martha, Mrs. J. F. Allen—Electa, Mr. J. T. Skelton—Sentinel.

During the social hour which followed the installation, a buffet supper was served to about fifty guests besides members of the O. E. S. Several splendid talks were made, among the speakers were Mrs. Rankin, Mr. J. T. Skelton, Mrs. J. F. Allen, Mrs. Pat Smithson, Mrs. C. N. Craig, Judge Allen, Mrs. Charles Mansell and Miss Helen McDaniel. The string band from the College furnished music.

Miss Helen McDaniel had the honor to be appointed by the Grand Matron, Mrs. Rankin, to serve as a page at the Grand Chapter which will meet at Meridian in April.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Neaves and Mr. and Pat Smithson motored to Isola Saturday evening to spend the week end with Percy Allen. Mrs. Smithson remained for a few days visit.

Mr. Dudley Phelps of Jackson, came up to Goodman on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavender of Weir, came over Sunday to see their daughters, Adelyn and Margaret, students at H. J. C.

Messrs. Bernard Jones, L. E. Oldham and Vervelton from Oxford, made a short visit to friends here Tuesday.

Messames Yergler, Shelby, Melvin, Mansell and Melton and Dr. Melvin from Camden, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McDaniel of Lexington and Mrs. Billy McDaniel of Durant attended the Eastern Star Installation Friday evening.

Mrs. Ida Henderson was called to Jackson Thursday by the extreme illness of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Henderson.

Misses Jerry Campbell and Mary Stroud, students at the College, spent the week end at M. S. C. W.

Messames J. L. Couble, A. N. Roberts, Eugene Parker, Carl Harmon and Miss Willie Mabry attended the teacher's meeting in Lexington Saturday.

Mrs. H. B. Powers and little daughter, Mary Lee left Tuesday to spend a few days at M. S. C. W., as guests of Miss Marie Melton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Craig motored to Sallis Sunday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stonestreet.

Marion O. Thomas, Edward Mabry and Hugh Cowsett and Bill Montgomery, students at Ole Miss spent the week end with home folks.

Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Neblett and John Neblett spent Sunday in Goodman. They were entertained at dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chapman. Robert Neblett joined them in the evening and they took supper with Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cobb.

Mrs. M. B. Tate spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Loyd Cade.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rogers motored to the capital city Friday afternoon. Mrs. Rogers visited her daughter, Sarah at Belhaven College while Mr. Rogers attended the wrestling match.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Sneavely and family of Duck Hill called on relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brock are having Mr. J. E. Hagin, a general contractor, put a new roof and add two additional rooms to their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson spent Sunday with Mrs. Johnson's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Parkinson of McCool.

Little Miss Lillian Clyde Thweatt is the guest of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold of Durant this week.

Mr. E. R. Burkley of Grenada was here last Wednesday in interest of the West Stave Company.

Mr. C. M. Tate and Mr. M. S. Rogers made a business trip to Kosciusko Monday afternoon.

Mr. Charlie Phillips, student at H. J. C. brought his room-mate Mr. Robert E. Lee home with him to spend the week end with home folks.

Miss Genevieve Smith of Emory was a guest of Miss Alice Phillips Saturday evening.

Mrs. Roy Campbell was dinner guest of Mrs. Herman Johnson one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brister spent Thursday night in the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. Musselwhite of North Union. They returned home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold, Miss Gladys Ferguson, and Jean Thweatt of Durant were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thweatt Sunday. Mr. Arnold and Miss Ferguson went on to Vaiden to see their nephew, Steve Rosamond, who is quite ill of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Phillips were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Thompson for their dinner guest on the Sabbath.

Conservation Week.

The P. T. A. and the Woman's Club in cooperation with the school are observing conservation week with interesting programs on birds, flowers, fish, game, minerals, and other natural resources. The students under the direction of the teachers present these programs each morning in the school auditorium.

The school children are putting out trees under the supervision of Mrs. C. B. Cade and Mrs. W. L. Wright, who are members of the Woman's Club.

Mrs. C. M. Holmes goes to Jackson each Monday with friends from Winona who go on business trips. Mrs. Holmes and friend take lessons in tap dancing.

Mr. J. S. Sheppard Brock of Hollandale was in West Friday to see friends and also to see Dr. W. Y. Brock in regard to his father, Mr. T. A. Brock of Vaiden, who is recuperating from an operation for appendicitis.

Rev. E. Ford of Goodman was visiting his church members in West Friday. Mrs. W. T. Hand carried him back to his home in the late afternoon.

The many friends of Mr. A. J. Stevens Sr. were greatly surprised and grieved to hear of his sudden serious illness while in Lexington on a business trip Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Stevens was carried on to Jackson to Dr. Walley's hospital Tuesday night. He was operated on Wednesday morning. We are delighted to say that Mr. Stevens is making a splendid recovery. The Woman's Club members sent him a floral offering of pink carnations. The Methodist Sunday School and Church sent roses, valley lilies and ferns.

Miss Ada Brock motored over to Lexington Wednesday on FER work.

Mrs. M. B. Tate was delighted to have Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Montgomery spend awhile Thursday afternoon with her.

Miss Mary Katherine Field of Durant and Mr. Harvey Campbell were married last August 2nd and didn't let their friends know anything about it until Monday January 22 when they surprised them by announcing their marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will make their home in Durant. Their friends wish them happiness.

Those attending the show at the Durant Theatre Wednesday night to see "Dinner at Eight" were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Stein, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cade, Mrs. C. M. Tate, Mrs. Harris Rhine and Miss Kate Cade.

Friday afternoon Miss Auris Pender accompanied her father home to Carmack for the week end.

We are very sorry to hear of the automobile accident Saturday night of Mr. William Brock, who had the misfortune to have his lips badly cut by the broken flying glass from the windshield, but we are glad to report after having several stitches taken by Dr. W. Y. Brock, William is out again.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tate and little son Billie visited Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Catron of Lexington.

The Vaiden basketball teams played West matched games Thursday afternoon on the West court. The West girls won over Vaiden and we are sorry to say Vaiden won over the West boys.

Friday afternoon Centerville came to play West matched games. Our girls won and our boys were defeated.

Mr. Tom Brock and Mrs. Lee Morgan were business visitors to Vaiden Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Walter Campbell and little son Charles Walton of Lexington are spending several weeks in the home of Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. C. B. Alexander.

Mrs. M. B. Tate spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Loyd Cade.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rogers motored to the capital city Friday afternoon. Mrs. Rogers visited her daughter, Sarah at Belhaven College while Mr. Rogers attended the wrestling match.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Sneavely and family of Duck Hill called on relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brock are having Mr. J. E. Hagin, a general contractor, put a new roof and add two additional rooms to their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Johnson spent Sunday with Mrs. Johnson's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Parkinson of McCool.

Little Miss Lillian Clyde Thweatt is the guest of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold of Durant this week.

Mr. E. R. Burkley of Grenada was here last Wednesday in interest of the West Stave Company.

Mr. C. M. Tate and Mr. M. S. Rogers made a business trip to Kosciusko Monday afternoon.

Mr. Charlie Phillips, student at H. J. C. brought his room-mate Mr. Robert E. Lee home with him to spend the week end with home folks.

Miss Genevieve Smith of Emory was a guest of Miss Alice Phillips Saturday evening.

Mrs. Roy Campbell was dinner guest of Mrs. Herman Johnson one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brister spent Thursday night in the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. Musselwhite of North Union. They returned home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold, Miss Gladys Ferguson, and Jean Thweatt of Durant were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thweatt Sunday. Mr. Arnold and Miss Ferguson went on to Vaiden to see their nephew, Steve Rosamond, who is quite ill of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Phillips were pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Thompson for their dinner guest on the Sabbath.

Young Evangelist Will End Revival Sunday

Rev. Homer Hall, the 14-year old evangelist who has been conducting a union revival at the court house this week, will close his engagement here Sunday night. He has chosen as his topic for the closing sermon: "The Prophet's Last Warning." The young preacher has been having a nice attendance during his visit in Lexington and stated that 28 converts had been made during the revival. Following his revival here he will leave for Helena, Ark. for an engagement.

WEST

HONOR ROLLS

LEXINGTON HIGH SCHOOL.

First Grade—Earle Alexander, Virginia Holder, Inez Lundy, Kathleen Lundy, Anne Love, Bobby Mae Lipsey, Sarah Bennett.

Second Grade—Bee Johnson, Sue Beth Rathell, Clarabel Rhine, Mary Jo Scott, Doris Thompson, Will Lake Meek, Jr., Billy Rutledge, Harry Stewart, Walter Ware, Douglas Duff.

Third Grade—Billy Herring, Billy Moore, Elsie Upchurch, N. M. Byrd, Lurline Roberts, Erlene Roberts, Halbert Channel, Georgia Byrd, Katherine Taylor.

Fourth Grade—Julia Beall, Jewell Farmer, Jim Gunter, Margaret Killebrew, Sara Margaret Lundy, Bettie Maud Lundy, Frances Phelps, Ernest Rathell, John Rhine, Jr., Mary Inez Taylor, L. B. Scott.

Fifth Grade—Gordon Ashley, Billy Carter, Corinne Doty, Martee Gullege, Pauline Huntington, Erma Louise Johnson, Edith McDaniel, Malcolm Phillips, Lucile Roberts, Fred Swinney, Louis King, Annie Catherine Tate, Fannie Mae Tidwell.

Sixth Grade—Robert Black, Ann Roach Lundy, Rosalie Moore, Virginia Moore, Ruth Orledge, Bettie Florence Roberts.

Seventh Grade—Walter Giffey, Josephine Holder, Patsy Kier, Mary Camella Moore, Marthy Rhine, Nelda Shelton, James Stewart, Carrie Roberts.

Eighth Grade—Early Lucas, Mary Gray, Katherine Killebrew, Dorothy Young, Frances Brady, Myra Gunter.

Ninth Grade—Elizabeth Beall.

Tenth Grade—Mary Harris Roberts, Marjorie Black, Mary Jessie Wigley.

Eleventh Grade—Elaine McLellan, Alice Byrd, Juanita Terry.

Finds Lost Mule As He Recovers Another

W. E. Spencer of Tolarville, accompanied by his son, Harry and his father-in-law, G. H. Pray of Los Angeles, California, were in Lexington Tuesday. Mr. Spencer found a lost mule through The Advertiser's Classified Ads as the mule advertised by W. B. Peacock of Acona, was one of his lost mules. While on his way back to Lexington from Acona he noticed a mule being driven to a wagon on the road that turned out to be another mule he had lost. Both mules were recovered by his good fortune on the trip.

Cash-Stewart

A wedding of interest to friends was consummated Wednesday night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. B. C. Stewart, in the marriage of her daughter, Miss Virginia Stewart to Mr. Leonard Cash, Rev. Homer Hall, 14-year old evangelist holding a religious engagement here, officiating. The bride is a graduate of the Lexington High School and numbers many friends. The groom is the son of D. T. Cash and is engaged

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Word of Camden and Mrs. B. C. Spann, Mrs. R. L. Bess and Joe Glenn of Black Hawk, were guests the past week of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scott.

Mrs. George D. McCaleb and Inez Roach spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bunch Jr., Yazoo City.

J. T. Neely of Durant was among business visitors here Monday. Misses Elizabeth and Connie McLellan and Marion McLellan were guests their sisters, Misses Mary and C. McLellan Saturday.

Many friend regret to hear of the continued illness of M. J. Fonville of Lexington and wish for him a speedy restoration to his former health.

Mrs. E. A. Sanders of Tchula was among shoppers in our city last Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Chisolm of Richland was a business visitor in Lexington Friday. Friends are sorry to know that Mrs. Chisolm has been sick the past week with a bad cold.

Miss Dessie Harmon spent the week end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Unger at Tchula.

B. F. Harthcock of Thornton, among visitors in Lexington Sunday. Morris Flink visited friends at and to Ruleville last week.

"Design for Living," by Frederic March, Gary Co. and Miriam Hopkins, is the ing, distracting story of a man who loved two women completely and couldn't remember which one to forget. At Theatre, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, 5-6-7th.

Dr. Joe Alexander of West was among business visitors in our Wednesday afternoon.

W. C. Downer of Emory was transacting business in our city Wednesday morning.

L. O. Spell of Brozville was in Lexington Wednesday afternoon and stated that he had moved his family to the home on the Watson place.

Howard Winstead of Howard was here after business and other matters in Lexington Wednesday.

Mrs. J. H. Callihan and Miss Minnie Brown of Ebenezer were looking after shopping errands in Lexington Wednesday.

J. W. Eakin of Tolarville was in the list of visitors here Wednesday afternoon.

M. G. Brough and H. M. Jordan engaged in repairing cabins for the Federal Land Bank on the Meek place near Cruger this week.

J. T. Parkinson, Jr., of Camp 4, Parkman came over the past week on a visit to friends in Lexington and Coxburg.

in farming on Route 8. Only members of the family and Rev. and Mrs. W. Burn Hall were present at the ceremony. Best wishes of friends are extended to the young couple in their happy venture.

ROOSEVELT'S FIFTY-SECOND MILESTONE

Our President, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, celebrated his 52nd Birthday on Tuesday, January 30th. America stood at attention. Benefit occasions were held throughout the nation for the Warm Springs Foundation Fund. Most fitting. Warm Springs is credited with having saved Roosevelt for America.

This week-end, Jitney-Jungle comes forth with plentiful bargains. A few examples follow.

"Your Red and Green Front Grocery Store"

Specials For Friday and Saturday

Flour, 1/2 Barrell, Wood, Sweet and Pure	$3.99	Turnips with tops fancy, Bunch	5c
Flour, 24-Lb. Sack, plain Sweet and Pure	95c	Beets Bunch	5c
Flour, 24-Lb. Sack Guaranteed Plain	85c	Spinach Bunch	5c
Crackers 2-Lb. Box	25c	Carrots Bunch	5c
Lux 2 Pkgs.	25c	Cabbage, fresh home grown Pound	3 1/2c
Snowdrift 6-Lb. Can	69c	Macaroni and Spaghetti 16-oz. Pkg.	16c
Lemons, Sunkist Dozen	19c	We do not keep the best meats—we SELL the BEST meats
Meat Smoke Dean's, Pint	49c	Smoked Sausage Pound	15c
Baking Powder, Calumet pkg. cake flour free with 1 Lb.	25c	Native Steak 3 Pounds	25c
Peaches for making pies, No. 2 Can Each	6c	Ham, Armour's Star whole or half Pound	15c
Coffee, ground while you wait 3 Lbs.	39c	Bacon, Armour's Star, 1-Lb. Box	25c
Salmon, Chum 2 Cans for	25c	Brookfield Sausage, Lb.	20c
Starch 6 Pkgs.	24c	Sausage, Pure Pork good home made, Lb.	10c
Soap, Big Deal 7 Bars	25c	Oysters Pint	25c
		Weiners 2 Pounds	25c

SAVE A NICKEL ON A QUARTER
JITNEY-JUNGLE
LEXINGTON, MISSISSIPPI

Announcement

Mr. Norman Weathersby has purchased an interest in the Carter Chevrolet Co. and will be identified with the firm after his teaching contract with the Lexington High School has been adjusted.

Mr. R. A. Hale leaves March 1st for Greenwood where he will be associated with Moore & McDavid Co.

W. O. Carter, Norman Weathersby and Gordon Carter now own the entire stock of the Carter Chevrolet Co. They ask for a continuation of your patronage and good will.

Carter Chevrolet Co.

Lexington, Mississippi